NEW ZEALAND WINE

Babich Hawke's Bay Chardonnay 2013

Specially selected from our two estate-owned Hawke's Bay vineyards, this un-oaked Chardonnay offers a creamy palate with melon and peach flavours (without the intrusion of oak) and a clean, dry finish.

Region:

Hawke's Bay

Recommended Food:

A versatile wine that will enhance a wide variety of dishes.

Recommended Cellaring:

0-4 years

Production Notes:

Parcels of specially selected Hawke's Bay fruit were pressed into stainless steel tanks and cool fermented. Several yeast strains were employed to express differing characters within the wine. The separate parcels were combined and lightly fined prior to bottling.

Technical Notes:

Alcohol: 13.5%

TA: 6.9g/l

pH: 3.5

Residual Sugar: 4.7g/l

Tasting Notes:

Citrus, apple and peach form the base of a perfumed nose. The palate is mouthfilling with sweet fruit upfront. Fresh peach and mineral notes continue on the finish. Good volume.

Awards:
